1. Property Name	Drish homestay
2. Number of Rooms	2
3. Number of Bed	2

IN Case

DTDO will update your application status to 'Under Review.' You have to wait until DTDO reviews it and provides any updates.

If the status is changed to 'Documents Required' you will need to provide the requested documents again by going to the application form and submitting them. (You Can Check Status Under notification and track Application)

If the status is changed to 'Rejected' please review the comments provided by DTDO (Under notification and track Application) and update your application accordingly.

If the certificate and payment receipt you provided are not valid or have expired, you will need to pay the certificate fee again to receive a new certificate.

(You can now obtain your certificate directly from the official UTDB Homestay website without any intermediaries.)
